

Class 4 July 5 – The verb Estar, days of the week, numbers 31 and higher

The other Spanish verb that expresses the idea “To be” is Estar. We use estar to talk about the location of things and people and to talk about health and well-being. We have already worked with this verb when we learned, “¿Cómo estás?” on the first day.

Estar conjugates as

Yo estoy (I am)

Tú estás (You are)

Ella-Él-Usted está (She-he-you (formal) are)

Nosotras-nosotros estamos (We (feminine) – We (masculine or mixed group) are Ustedes-ellos-ellas están (You (plural)-they (masculine or mixed group)-they (feminine) are

Here are the words and phrases most often used to talk about the location of a person or object with “estar”:

Al lado de (beside)	Con (with)
A la derecha de (to the right of)	Sin (without)
A la izquierda de (to the left of)	Delante de (in front of)
Allá (over there)	Detrás de (behind)
Allí (there)	Debajo de (under)
Aquí (here)	En (on-in)
Cerca de (close to)	Encima de (on top of)
Lejos de (far from)	Sobre (on-on top of-over)
	Entre (between)

The days of the week in Spanish are:

Lunes (Monday), martes (Tuesday), miércoles (Wednesday), jueves (Thursday), viernes (Friday), sábado (Saturday) and domingo (Sunday)

Before coming to class, think about how you might answer the question, “¿Dónde estás los sábados al mediodía?” (Where are you at noon on Saturdays?)
